139

The policy regarding issue of Bar Licences to Hotels as well as renewal of licences to old hotels was discussed in a meeting with Excise Commissioner and Finance Secretary on 18/1/96. We recommend the following course of action:

140

New Bar Licences other than those required by Hotels :

Since there already exist 274 bar licences in Daman and 180 in Diu, it was felt that for the time being we may put an embargo on issue of fresh licences for Retail/Whole Sale vending of IMFL/Country Liquor.

Issue of licences to existing Hotels :

The Excise Commissioner pointed out that 14 applications for issue of bar licences are pending. In each case he has tabulated the factors which are to be taken into account for issue of licences (Pg.134). Most of the applicants do not have a clear case because of proximity to objectionable items under rule 90. At the same time there is a provision under which Administrator can relax these conditions for reasons of promoting tourism. Since tourism promotion is a thrust area in our developmental policy, in view of the tremendous pressure of tourist traffic particularly during the weekends it would be unreasonable to deny the hotels facility of a bar licence. It is therefore proposed that in all cases being hit by objectionable item as specified under rule 90, ~~the licences should be granted~~

~~and also provided that he should be registered under the Tourist Trade Act and capable of getting registration as a category A & B hotel: We have specifically excluded 'C' & 'D' categories because 'C' is more of a dormitory type accommodation for low budget tourists and 'D' is equal to paying guest accommodation.~~

142

It is obvious that in all such cases, before grant of licences, Ex.Com, will satisfy himself that the hotel is not violating any of the statutory provisions of law including in particular the Coastal Zonal regulations.

143

Renewal of licences in case of hotels which are subsequently violating the provisions of law as per the requirement of the Act.

There may be some cases where at the time of establishment the hotels fully conform to the provisions of law for issue of bar licences. However, subsequently due to development and urbanisation, they are at present hit by the objectionable items provided under Rule 90. In such cases it would not be fair to cancel their licences but at the same time they cannot be allowed to continue to operate under the old conditions. It would therefore be best to stipulate that in all such cases the hotel owners should put
