ANNEXURE –I (SCOPE OF WORK)

I Listing the Property on UNESCO's Tentative List of World Heritage Sites

1. Undertake a site visit to identify the property and the various components that should be nominated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site nomination. In addition to the Historic Core of Diu comprising of Diu Fort, any other sites that are worthy of nomination, are to be included as part of the property.
2. Prepare documents containing the name of the property, geographical location, a brief description of the sites, and justification of their Outstanding Universal Value (OUV) for enlisting the property on UNESCO's Tentative List of World Heritage Sites

II Preparation of the Nomination Dossier

(The one year period, which is mandatory for a property to be on the Tentative list before the Nomination Dossier can be submitted, can be utilized for the preparation of the Nomination Dossier).

The following tasks will be undertaken as part of the process of preparing the Nomination Dossier

1. Identify the area for nomination based on criteria as prescribed by UNESCO after due deliberations with all Stakeholders.
2. Collate all information about the area proposed for nomination including architectural documentation, etc.
3. Ensure that the area proposed for nomination includes all components needed for the integrity of the site.
4. Explore the potential of a serial nomination and collaborate with other concerned stakeholders/state governments if required.
5. Draft the 'Statement of Outstanding Universal Value' (OUV) for the property
6. Use a team of multi disciplinary consultants as prescribed in UNESCO's format for preparation of a Nomination Dossier
7. Identify and protect an adequate boundary that does not compromise the property's OUV.
8. Identify and protect an adequate buffer zone that does not compromise the property's OUV.
9. Ensure that the authenticity of the property is maintained.
10. Ensure that the integrity of the property is maintained.
11. Identify the laws that provide legal protection for the property. If some components are unprotected, ensure legal protection is secured before submission of the dossier.
12. Draft a policy framework for conservation and management of the property.
13. Ensure support of all the owners/stakeholders towards protection of the property.
14. Assess the property for all nature of threats, particular problems and risks such as development pressures, environmental pressures, natural disasters, visitor/tourism, etc. Ensure that there is no major development project (such as high rise buildings/railway/metro/roadways) in the property, buffer or vicinity which affects/ is likely to affect the property.
15. Ensure Heritage Impact Assessments are carried out for any large impact affecting or likely to affect the property.

III Prepare a Site Management Plan (SMP) that ensures protection of the OUV of the property

1. Put into place an effective site management strategy and requisite framework (legal, institutional and administrative) before the nomination dossier of the property is submitted to UNESCO for World Heritage status.
2. Once the SMP is approved, promulgate the SMP of the property through the Master Plan/ Development Plan/ Zonal Plan or any other planning document that has a legal status in Diu.
3. Suggest mechanisms for implementation of the SMP.
4. Ensure adequate funds are available for implementation of the SMP.

IV Publicize the nomination and create awareness

1. Hold workshops and consultative sessions with stakeholders, monitoring agencies, professionals, subject experts and local citizens to derive the significance of the site.
2. Organise at least one workshop where local and international experts on World Heritage are invited to review the dossier.
3. Create awareness both nationally and internationally in order to get support from other member countries of the World Heritage Committee. Present the draft nomination dossier at international workshops, seminars etc in the course of the year.

V Liaison with the Archaeological Survey of India, ICOMOS and UNESCO World Heritage Secretariat

1. Interface with the World Heritage Section of the Archaeological Survey of India for submission of documents for the Tentative List and UNESCO World Heritage List.
2. Help the Department of Tourism in organising the visit of the ICOMOS Review Mission.
3. If called upon, attend the ICOMOS Review Meeting at the World Heritage Secretariat prior to the World Heritage Committee Meeting.
4. Attend the World Heritage Committee Meeting wherein the final decision will be taken to list the site to lobby for the site and answer all technical questions raised at the session
