1. The minimum rates of monthly wages payable to any class of employees employed in any category on monthly wages shall be computed by multiplying the minimum rate of daily wages fixed for the class of employees to which he belongs, by twenty six, the quotient being stepped upto its nearest paisa.
2. The minimum rates of wages shall be inclusive of payment of remuneration in respect of weekly day of rest.
3. The minimum rates of wages shall consist of basic rates, the cost of living allowances and the cash value of concessions, if any.
4. A skilled employee is one who is capable of working efficiently, by exercising considerable independent judgment and of discharging his duties responsibly. He must possess a thorough and comprehensive knowledge of the trade, craft or industry in which he is employed.
5. A semi-skilled employee is one, who does work generally of a well defined routine nature, wherein the major requirement is not so much of the judgment, skill and dexterity but of proper discharge of duties as assigned to him for a relatively narrow job and where important decisions are made by other. His work is thus limited to the performance of routine operations of limited scope.
