 - (ii) make a personal charge against another Councilor or any Officer other than for work done in his official capacity.
 - (iii) reflect upon any decision arrived at by the Council on any matter except on a fresh motion relating to such matter;
 - (iv) use offensive or defamatory expressions;
 - (v) use his right of speech for the purpose of obstructing the business of the meeting;
 - (vi) disclose the proceedings of any Committee appointed by the Council; or
 - (vii) discuss any ruling, order or discretion of the presiding authority except: -
 - a. the ruling, order or discretion on a resolution for the removal from Office of the President or Vice-President brought under sub-section (1) of section 56; and
 - b. with the consent of the presiding authority.
 - (3) The Councilor who objects to offending or offensive or defamatory words shall move either at once or at the conclusion of the speech of the Councilor who used such offending words, "that the words be removed from the proceedings of the meeting".
 - (4) Where such motion is agreed to, the presiding authority shall direct that such words be removed from the proceedings of the meeting.
 - (5) A Councilor whose words have been removed from the proceeding of the meeting shall be guilty of a breach of order.
 - (6) The presiding authority, having called the attention of the meeting to the conduct of the Councilor who persists in irrelevance or in tedious repetition either of his own arguments or of the arguments used by other Councilors in debate or willfully contravenes the provisions of sub-rule (10) or any other rule, may direct him to discontinue his speech.
26. Opening adjourned debate: -On resumption of an adjourned debate, the Councilor who was speaking in the meeting immediately before the adjournment shall be entitled to speak first.
27. Power of presiding authority to divide motion or amendment: -When any motion or amendment thereto involves several points, the presiding authority shall divide it and put each point separately to vote.
28. Grouping of motions and amendments: -Where the subject matter of more than one motions or amendments thereto are substantially the same, the presiding authority may group together two or more such motions or amendments thereto for consideration of a meeting.

29. Amendment: -(1) After a motion has been moved and seconded, amendments may be proposed thereto.
- (2) Every amendment shall be relevant to the motion and propose a variation or addition or omission, but no amendment shall be a direct negation of the motion before the meeting or shall in substance be the same which has already been negated at the same meeting.
 - (3) Any number of amendments may be moved before the meeting at the same time, but no Councilor shall propose more than one amendment to the same motion.
 - (4) No Councilor who has proposed or seconded any motion shall propose or second an amendment thereto.
 - (5) When an amendment to an amendment is moved, the amendment sought to be amended shall be, as long as the amendment by which it is sought to be amended is under discussion, be deemed to be the substantive proposition before the meeting.
 - (5) An amendment in alternative shall not be moved.
 - (6) The presiding authority may disallow any amendment which is in its opinion frivolous.
 - (7) No amendment shall be moved after a Councilor has commenced his right of reply.
30. Right to reply: -The mover, or if the mover waives his right, the seconder of a substantive motion, may reply at the conclusion of the debate on it but no other Councilor shall speak on the same motion or amendment, after the reply, except to explain, with the permission of the presiding authority, any material ambiguity in the speech of reply.
31. Closure: -(1) The presiding authority or any Councilor may at any time move "that the question be now put to vote" and if the motion is carried, the presiding authority, after allowing the mover or the seconder to reply to the debate under rule 30, shall put the motion together, with the amendment, if any, to vote.
- (2) There shall be no debate on a motion for closure.
 - (3) If a motion for closure is lost, it shall not be moved again before fifteen minutes.
32. Voting on original motion and amendment: - (1) On the conclusion of the debate on a motion, or where the presiding authority is satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently discussed, it shall, after allowing the mover or seconder his right to reply, put the motion to the vote of the meeting without further discussion.
- (2) The votes shall be taken in the following manner, namely:-
 - (a) when there is only one amendment to the motion: -
 - (i) the amendment shall first be put to vote;
 - (ii) if the amendment is lost, the motion shall then be put to vote; or
 - (iii) if the amendment is carried, the amended motion shall be put to vote.
 - (b) when there are more than one amendments: -
 - (i) the amendments shall first be put to vote one after another in such order as the presiding authority may decide;
 - (ii) where all amendments are lost, the motion shall be put to vote; or
 - (iii) where all or any of the amendments are carried, the amended motion shall be put to vote.
33. Method of recording vote: -Votes shall ordinarily be taken by a show of hands, but on special occasion, if the presiding authority so decides, votes may be taken by ballot: Provided that, votes in respect of any motion or proposal involving financial commitments shall not be recorded by ballot by the presiding authority, but the names of the Councilors voting for or against such motion or proposal shall be recorded as provided under sub-section (12) of section 78.
34. Voting by ballot: -(1)When votes are taken by ballot, each Councilor shall record his vote on vote recording machine or on a voting paper.
- (2) The papers used for voting shall not be destroyed till one month from the date of declaration of the result.
35. Refrain from voting: -Any Councilor present at the meeting may refrain from voting if he so decides to do.

36. Consequences of equality of votes: -When there is an equality of votes and the presiding authority refrains from giving its casting or second vote, the proposition shall be held to have lapsed and shall not be brought forward at any subsequent meeting till a period of three months has elapsed.
37. Declaration of result: -(1) As soon as the votes have been counted the presiding authority shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (13) of section 78, then and there declare the result of voting which shall be duly recorded in the minute book.
(2) Where votes are taken by show of hands, a declaration by the presiding authority that a resolution or motion has been carried and an entry to that effect in the minute book shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that the resolution or motion has been carried.
38. Voting on fiscal matter: -(1) When budget estimate, supplementary budget estimate, proposition for re-appropriation of funds, code of rules or bye-laws, list of lands for sale or purchase or lease or transfer, list of items for write off, lists of arrears, accounts of the Council or such other propositions as the Standing Committee decides, are laid before a meeting, the presiding authority may group the items in such groups as may be convenient to it and propose to the meeting for each group in succession.
(2) The presiding authority may sub-divide or re-arrange the groups.
(3) Where on the sense of the meetings being taken by the presiding authority, all Councilors present are of the opinion that no item or group should be considered separately, the whole question shall be considered as one proposition.
(4) No debate or speech shall be allowed when the opinion or sense of the meeting is being taken under sub-rule (3).
(5) Each resolution approving the proposal shall be seconded before it is proceeded with.
39. Form of minutes: -The minutes of every meeting shall be recorded and maintained in accordance with sub-section (12) of section 78 in a book in Form-C.
40. Amendment of Minutes: -(1) Where, after the minutes are placed before the next meeting of the Council, any Councilor objects to the minutes as having been incorrectly or incompletely recorded, the presiding authority shall, after taking the sense of the meeting, make such amendments in the minutes as the meeting deems proper and shall confirm and sign the minutes as so amended.
(2) The presiding authority shall initial or sign all amendments so made.
(3) No debate or speech shall be allowed on any objection to the minutes raised under this rule.
(4) The record of the minutes of the meeting shall always contain the views, if any, expressed by the Chief Officer, on the motion or resolution at the meeting.

(2) Where the resale results in any loss to the Council, the bidder shall be liable for such loss.
(3) In the case of immovable property, the person who is declared to be the purchaser shall deposit twenty per cent of the sale price immediately after his bid is accepted, with the officer conducting the sale.
(4) The purchaser shall pay the balance within fifteen days from the date of sale of the property in the Office of the Council.
(5) Where the last day be a Sunday or a public holiday, then payment shall be made on the first working day immediately after such day.
(6) Where the purchaser does not pay the balance of sale price within the period specified under sub-rule (4), the property shall be resold at his risk.
(7) The purchaser shall forfeit all claims to the sale price realized on resale and if such resale results in any loss to the Council, he shall be liable for such loss.
9. Loss to be recovered as arrears of Municipal taxes: - When the resale of any property results in any loss to the Council, the difference in the original sale price and price realized after resale together with all expenses, incurred on such resale shall be recovered by the Council from the defaulter as arrears of Municipal taxes. It shall be lawful for the Chief Officer to ask prospective bidders to deposit earnest money or bid charges so that only genuine bidders participate in the auction. Provided that such earnest money shall not exceed 10% of total value of the property to be auctioned.
10. Resale after fresh proclamation: - Whenever any postponed sale or resale is to be held under these rules, the Chief Officer shall issue a fresh proclamation in the manner specified in rule 3 and follow the procedure specified in rules 4 and 5.
11. Setting aside sale in certain cases: - Where due to sale of any immovable property, interests of some person are affected, such person may apply, to the Chief Officer within twenty one days from the date on which the sale is held, to set aside the sale on the ground of some material irregularity, mistake or fraud in the proclamation or conduct of the sale:
Provided that, no sale shall be set aside on the aforesaid ground, unless, it is proved to his satisfaction that the applicant has sustained substantial loss by reason thereof.
12. Refund of deposit or purchase money: - When the sale is set aside the deposit or purchase money, as the case may be, of the purchaser shall be refunded to him.
13. The Chief Officer to confirm the sale: - (1) Where no objection is raised within twenty one days from the date on which the sale of immovable property is held, or even when any objections are so raised and the Chief Officer is satisfied that there is no valid reason to set aside the sale and full payment is made as required by these rules, the Chief Officer shall confirm the sale by granting a certificate as specified under sub- (2) of section 151 in Form C".

- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their final publication in the Official Gazette.
2. Definition: - In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires: -
 - 1) Property tax means a consolidated property tax on lands and buildings comprising of a general tax; a general water tax; a lighting tax and a general sanitary tax as detailed in sub-section (2) of Section 101;
 - 2) "Building" means a building as define under Sub-Section(3) of Section-2 of the Regulation;
 - 3) Annual Rateable Value of a building shall be equal to the 90 percent of Annual rent of the building -where annual rent shall be calculated by the method specified in Rule 5 of these Rules.
 - 4) Residential property is either a land lying vacant and unused or a property used exclusively for the residential purposes. Every other property is commercial property.
 - 5) Words and expressions used but not defined in these rules shall have the meaning respectively assigned to them in the Regulation.
3. Tax rates of properties in Municipal Council area shall be as under:-
 - a) Commercial properties: -5.5% of annual rateable value.
 - b) Residential properties: -3.5% of annual rateable value.
4. Presumed Annual Rent :- The council shall, by a resolution passed by 2/3rd Majority of total strength of the Council, classify various locations of the city in 4 classes, namely class 1, class 2, class 3 and class 4. Provided that not more than 20% of the households in the city can be classified as being in class 4 locations. Provided further that any such resolution shall need approval of the Director (Municipal Administration) before coming in force. Any such resolution will be duly published in at least three vernacular newspapers in circulation in local area and shall also be sent for publication in official gazette. Presumed annual rent of the property in different locations shall be as under:-

Location	Presumed Annual Rent per square feet per annum.
	Residential Property	Commercial Property
