over to the State Government, Corporation, Government Company or as the case may be, bank after deducting, except in the case of amount to be paid to the State Government; such portion of the amount realised, as cost of collection, as the Collector, may deem to be reasonable.

(4) No suit for the recovery of any such due as aforesaid shall lie in a Civil Court against any person referred to in sub-section (1) and no injunction shall be granted by a Civil Court in respect of any action taken or intended to be taken in pursuance of the right conferred by this section.

4. Interest of State Government, Corporation, etc. not to be affected.—(1) Nothing in section 3 shall—

(a) affect any interest of the State Government, the Corporation or the Government Company or any bank in any property, created by any mortgage, charge, pledge, or other encumbrance; or

(b) bar a suit or affect any other right or remedy against any person other than a person referred to in that section, in respect of a contract of indemnity or guarantee entered in to in relation to an agreement referred to in clause (a).

(2) Where the property of any person referred to in section 3 is subject to any mortgage, charge, pledge, or other encumbrance in favour of the State Government, the Corporation, a Government Company or a Bank then—

(a) in every case of a pledge of goods, proceedings shall first be taken for sale of the goods pledged and if the proceeds of such sale are less than the sum due, then proceedings shall be taken for recovery of the balance as if it were an arrear of land revenue:

Provided that where the Collector is of the opinion that it is necessary so to do for safeguarding the recovery of the sum due to the State Government, Corporation, Government Company or Bank, as the case may be, he may, for reasons to be recorded direct proceedings to be taken for the recovery of the sum due as if it were an arrear of land revenue before or at the same time the proceedings are taken for sale of the goods pledged.

(b) In every case of mortgage, charge or other encumbrance of immovable property the said property or as the case may be the interest of the defaulter therein, shall first be sold in proceedings for recovery of the sum due from that person as if it were an arrear of land revenue, and any other proceedings may be taken thereafter only if the Collector certifies that there is no prospect for realisation of the entire sum due through the first mentioned process within reasonable time.

5. Act not to debar recovery of dues in respect of financial assistance given by the bank to agriculturist.—Subject to the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 3, nothing in this Act shall debar the recovery of dues in respect of financial assistance given by a bank to an agriculturist or the security of a charge or mortgage created by the agriculturist on any land or interest therein in favour of the bank, where such dues are recoverable by the Bank under the provisions of any other law for the time being in force.

6. Power to make rules.—(1) The State Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette and subject to the condition of previous publications, make rules for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, such rules may be made for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) any other purpose to be prescribed under sub-clause (vii) of clause (d) of section 2.

(b) the form of certificate to be sent under sub-section (1) of section 3.

(c) Any other matter which is to be or may be prescribed.

7. Suits in Civil Courts to abate.— All suits of the nature referred to in sub-section of section 3 pending in any Civil Court immediately before the commencement of this Act shall abate upon such commencement so however that such abatement shall be without prejudice to the right of the State Government, Corporation, Government Company or Bank, as the case may be, to recover any sum which may be the subject matter of such suit in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or any other law for the time being in force.

By order and in the name of the
Administrator of U.T. of Dadra &
Nagar Haveli and Daman & Diu.

Secretariat,
Daman.
