The Chairperson of the Council may require any petitioner to provide further particulars of the claim or any relevant documents in support of the proceedings. If the petitioner fails or omits to do so within fifteen days of receipt of such communication or within such further time as the Chairperson may, for sufficient cause, allow, the Council may terminate the proceedings without prejudice to the right of the petitioner to make fresh reference if he is otherwise entitled so to do. The petitioner shall also simultaneously send a copy of the reference to the buyer or buyers against whom the reference is directed.

(vi) The reference/application shall be acknowledged forthwith if it is delivered at the office of the Council. Where the reference/application is received by registered post, its receipt shall be acknowledged on the same day. The Chairperson shall cause the buyer to furnish his detailed response to the reference within fifteen days of receipt of the reference by the buyer or within such further time not exceeding fifteen days, as he may, for sufficient cause, allow.

(vii) On receipt of a reference under section 18 of the Act, the Chairperson of the Council shall cause the reference and the buyers response thereto to be examined and, on being satisfied with the reference making a prima facie case of delayed payment, cause the reference to be placed before the Council at its next immediate meeting for consideration. The Chairperson shall also ensure that each reference received within two weeks of the date of the last preceding meeting of the Council is examined and, if found in order, is placed for consideration of the Council at its next immediate meeting.

(viii) The Council shall either itself conduct conciliation in each reference placed before it or seek the assistance of any institute or centre providing alternate dispute resolution services by making a reference to such an institution or centre, for conducting conciliation. The provisions of sections 65 to 81 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 shall apply to such a reference as if the conciliation was initiated under Part III of that Act.

(ix) The Council or the institute to which it has been referred for conciliation shall required the supplier and the buyer concerned to appear before it by issuing notices to both parties in this behalf. On the appearance of both parties, the Council or the institute shall first make efforts to bring about conciliation between the buyer and the supplier. The institute shall submit its report to the Council within fifteen days of reference from the Council or within such period as the Council may specify.

(x) When such conciliation does not lead to settlement of the dispute, the Council shall either itself act as an Arbitrator for final settlement of the dispute or refer it to an institute for such arbitration, in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The supplier or the buyer may, either in person or through his lawyer registered with any court, present his case before the Council or the institute during the arbitration proceedings. The institute shall submit its report to the Council within such time as the Council may stipulate.

(xi) Any decision of the Council shall be made by the majority of its members present at the meeting of the Council.

(xii) The Council shall make an arbitral award in accordance with section 31 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act 1996 and within the time specified in sub-section (5) of section 18 of the Act. The award shall be stamped in accordance with the relevant law in force. Copies of the award shall be made available within seven days of filing of an application.

(xiii) The provisions of sections 15 of 23 of the Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force.

(xiv) The Chairperson or any other officer authorised by the Chairperson shall forward the proceedings of every meeting of the Council including annual progress report of the Council to the Member – Secretary of the Advisory Committee constituted under sub-section (3) of the section 7 of the Act.
PRESS NOTE

The Micro Small and Medium Enterprises Development Act, 2006 has been enacted and came into force since 2nd October, 2006. The said Act is also extended to the Union Territory of Daman, Diu and Dadra & Nagar Haveli.

The salient features of the Act is, replacement of word “Industry” by “Enterprises” with a view to emphasize the importance of service sector enterprises in the country. Enterprises have been broadly classified into two categories:
1) Manufacture/production of goods pertaining to any industry and
2) Enterprises engaged in providing/rendering of services.

The Manufacturing enterprises have been classified into:
- Micro Enterprises- investment up to Rs.25 lakh
- Small Enterprises- investment above Rs.25 lakh & up to Rs.5 crore.
- Medium Enterprise- investment above Rs.5 crore & up to Rs.10 crore.

Service enterprises classified into:
- Micro Enterprises- investment up to Rs.10 lakh
- Small Enterprises- investment above Rs.10 lakh & up to Rs.2 crore.
- Medium Enterprise- investment above Rs.2 crore & up to Rs.5 crore.

The above investment excludes the investment in land and building.

The SSI registration has been replaced with a filing of entrepreneur’s memorandum. The entrepreneurs shall be issued EM Number on the same day if it is filed in person or online otherwise within 5 days.

Filing of entrepreneurs’ memorandum (EM) is mandatory for medium enterprises whereas it will be optional for other categories. The format for filing EM can be downloaded from www.smallindustryindia.com or www.laghu-udyog.com or shall be obtained from DICs.

Under this Act, provisions related to delayed payments to Micro and Small Enterprises has been strengthened by constituting U.T. level Micro and Small Enterprises Facilitation Council.
